

Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail Association:

The Association was founded in 1995. Its mission is the identification, preservation and promotion of the trail blazed by Daniel Boone in 1775 from Long Island on the Holston to Cumberland Gap. Our vision is: The Daniel Boone Trail, from Sycamore Shoals, through Cumberland Gap, to Fort Boonesborough, Kentucky, is the most significant historic trail east of the Mississippi River in the U.S. This map provides a guide for a driving tour of the Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail.

Legend

Wilderness Road

DISCLAIMER

This map product was prepared from Geographic Information System data obtained from the U.S. Geological Survey, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the U.S. Forest Service, the U.S. National Park Service, the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and other sources. The City of Kingsport, Tennessee, and its employees, agents and personnel, do not warrant the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the data, or any portion thereof, or the results of any use of the map product. The City of Kingsport, Tennessee, and its employees, agents and personnel, shall not be held liable for any use of the map product.

The map product was prepared by the City of Kingsport, Tennessee, and its employees, agents and personnel, and is provided as a service to the public. The City of Kingsport, Tennessee, and its employees, agents and personnel, do not warrant the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the data, or any portion thereof, or the results of any use of the map product. The City of Kingsport, Tennessee, and its employees, agents and personnel, shall not be held liable for any use of the map product.

Map Produced by
Bunny Eaton
G.I.S. Division

Map Reference#
13515w04374_1
Date: 11-14-05